A Balabow to the Sky New that the Bur-graff Family Blovm to Over.

Gustavus A. Burgraff sued the American News

The defence was first, that the News Company was not accountable, and second that the publication was frue. Mr. Fullerton for the defendant was guing on to show that it was true by reading the papers in Mrs. Surgrad's that it was true by reading the papers in Mrs. Surgraff's diverse sait when he stopped, saving that he distinct these disclosures of domestic infelicity, and suggested that the planning consent that the case he dismissed without costs. Planning counseled—Judge O'liserman said there was no duty which the Court found it more painful to perform than to assist at the uncovering of the secretainiseries, quarrels, and in happiness of domestic life. He noped that this family, as it had been intuited might be the case, would now learn to grave about the past forgive what could be forgiven, forget what could be forgiven, forget what could be forgiven, or set what could be forgiven, and remember that there was a time when, on a very solems and to them a very happy occasion, the husband and wife look hands and pleden! to love and guard one another for better and for worse.

CHICAGO, April 17.-Mme. Adelina Patti has written Col. Mapleson, announcing that she will be un-able to fulfil her New York and Boston engagements, sentative of the Associated Press this morning she said she had felt the necessity of retiring for some time, and she had felt the necessity of retiring for some time, and this had been forcibly impressed upon her be reason of her heavy work in this city. She would therefore obey her physician, and would sail at once for England from New York. Incidentally, she remarked that her divorce from the Caux was absolute, and that she could now sing in France without having her salary attached under her applial contract. She expects to remain in her cattle in Wales for several mouths, and then expects to sing in London, Paris, and, possibly, St. Fetersburg. The divorce proceedings have been dragging for years, and Mms. Parti stated that they had involved a direct outley on her part of full 500,000 france. To hight's performance therefore concludes her American engagement. She has sung forty two times, receiving $160,000.

Col. Mapleson declared this afternous that he had not received any such letter from Patil, and that Patit would sing in New York and Boston.

CINCINNATI, April 17.-In his speech at the who served his country best served his party most affectively. He had sought to serve his party by seeking to promote its purity and honesty. There was no act of wrong in pullic life but had its origin in selfan matives, and that found its support among "lewd fellows of the baser sort," who, if they could not defend the wrong, could calumniate the motives of those who opposed it. There was no important vote of his which he did not cast with a full appreciation of his responsibility to his constituents and his country. He was willing to follow his judgment and his conscience, rather than to seek ephemeral applause, and he felt willing to shide the honest wordet of the people upon his course. There was no vote that he would change if he could. who served his country best served his party most

The Belowers Hay Plabory Touchle. WILMINGTON, Del., April 17.-The Senate yesterday afternoon, in view of the fishery troubles between Delaware and New Jersey, passed a bill suspending the operations of the fishery license set of 1871, and all sul in the House the bill was read twice and laid on the table until this morning. The *peaker presented and had read a copy of the injunction issued by the United States Nupreme Court, reafraning the State From enforcing its fishery laws until the question shall be settled. The House, by a vote of 11 to 6, has voted to non-concur in the Senate bill for suspending the operation of the Sahery Laws.

ROMANCE OF THE DRY GOODS TRADE.

Fannie Gotlieb, who was married to Herhard Scherer about two years ago, is socking to here the marriage annulled upon the ground that it was brought about by force and duress, and that Scherer, a few days after the coremony was performed, abandoned her.

Her story is that Scherer represented that he was a very wealthy dry goods merchant, and had a comfortable home provided for her. She declared to him she would never consent to become his wife but her father and brothers influenced by his statements, threatened that if she refused they would throw her out of the third-story window and discount her. Then, under lear of her life, she consented, and the ceremony of marriage was performed by a Jewish rabbi.

Then it came out that Scherer had no stock of dry goods except a few articles in a little peddling basiset, and no home except the privilege of part of a bedroom in a tenement house, He lived at her father's house a few days after the marriage, but she did not, she says, voluntarily cohabit with him.

Pending the divorce suit, which has not yet been tried, Mrs. Scherer sued her husband and the Bowery Savings Bank for $130 which he had on deposit there, claiming that this sum had been given to her.

The jury in Judge J. F. Daly's court yesterday gave a verdict for the defendant.

Carmine Labriola, an Italian laborer in the employ of the Saitimore and Ohio Railroad Company was robbed in his hut at Perrvville, Md., on Aug. 5 last of $60 by three coursades named Felize Ranc, Giuseppe Santors, and Michael Santors. They injured him badly santors, and Michael Santore. They injured him badly, and, although he seemed to recover, he is now dying. The thieves were arrested soon after the crime, but were discharged because there was no evidence against them, Labriola having come to the city. Detectives from Inspector Byrnes's office arrested Felize Hanzo inflaration on Thursday night and Giuseppe Santore in Harlem yesterday. The third man is still at large. Giuseppe Santore is now blind and a cripple, having been recently injured by a blast explosion in the annexed district. The prisoners were taken to Maryland yesterday.

An Insurance Company Beaten.

Mesers. Guardiola & Tejedor, sugar shippers of Cardenas, sued in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Coxe, to recover insurance from the Insurance Company of North America on a cargo of sugarshipped in the brig Georgia in June, 1880. The sugar snipped in the brig deorgia in June, 1880. The case has been on trial several days. The insurance com-pany asserted that the plantiffs insured a larger quan-tity of sugar than was really shipped, and that the ves-sel conveying it was purposely wrecked, in order that the insurance might be obtained. The mate of the Georgia, S. Dodge, testified that he was hired to sign false receipts for the lading of the sugar, and other wit-nesses said that only about 135 horsheads were not on loard the brig. The jury yesterday gave a verdict for the plaintiffs.
